Mr. S. McGrath.

Dear Sean,

Thanks for the list of names which I hope is worth more than its weight in gold to us. We had some difficulty in getting the whole of the appeal on one sheet of paper. I enclose you herewith a copy of what we agreed upon.

Thanks for the suggestion re approaching J. Bunting through Martin. I hope to have the first batch of 100 appeals out on Monday.

All the best,

Yours sincerely,

P.S.
Not only have I past my majority, but I also carry an Irish Passport with me night and day.
